

Autumn international Symposium 2024

Special Lecture by Dr. Tim Hunt,

Nobel Laureate in Physiology or Medicine 2001

Date: September 30th, 2024

12 : 15~15 : 35

Venue: Seminar room in KiKi Center, First floor of Basic Science Research Building, Faculty of Medicine

Program

Chair:

Professor Mary Collins, FMedSci

Professor of Virology

Director, Blizard Institute, Faculty of Medicine and Dentistry, Queen Mary University of London

Shiro Maeda, MD, PhD

Professor, Department of Advanced Genomic and Laboratory Medicine, Graduate School of Medicine, University of the Ryukyus

Time	Speakers	Title
12:15	Prof Kazuhiro Kogure	Opening remarks
12:20	Dr. Minako Imamura	Okinawa Bioinformatics Bank project
12:45	Prof Sian Henson	Dysregulated nutrient sensing during immune senescence
13:10	Dr. Tomoyo Taniguchi	Altered gut microbiota by antibiotics administration ameliorates experimental cerebral malaria in mice
13:30	Prof Richard Faragher,	Ageing: Unsolved problems in its biology
13:50	Dr. Gakuya Takamatsu	Exploring Psychiatric Disease Pathophysiologies: High-Penetrance Variant Identification through iPSC Technology
14:10	Prof Julie Thornton	TBA: cutaneous biology
14:30	Prof Kenzo Takahashi	Why don't human wounds heal? From the Traits of Skin Evolution
14:50	Prof Li Chan	Obesity and diabetes in the proaging model of Down Syndrome
15:10	break
15:20	Dr Tim Hunt	Thoughts on the mechanism of aging
15:50	Prof Mary Collins	Closing remarks